

Answer 10:

Since distribution group contacts do not migrate, you may want to export them into a text file prior to migration. The instructions on how to do that are accessible here. Once migration has been completed, you can then re-create your distribution group by importing the text file. Those directions will be forthcoming.